Mother Teresa said, "We ourselves feel that what we are doing is just a drop in the ocean. But the ocean would be less because of that missing drop."

A small act of kindness can change the world. Have you ever helped someone in need today?